On the Market in...Darien, CT

Situated on a private island overlooking Long Island Sound, this magnificent, 12,000-square-foot estate takes waterfront living to a new level.

EXCLUSIVE ELEGANCE

(above) This enclave boasts 7.1 acres, a dock with access to Long Island Sound and views of the Goodwives River and Rings End Bridge. Designed by Thompson Raissis Architects in 2009, the grand house is accented with a beautiful pool area, outdoor shower and extensive vegetable and cutting gardens.

(left) With wide painted wood panels and glass lanterns, the family room has a coastal feel. It's finished with a beautiful stone fireplace and large windows that look out to the water.

Home & Garden

(above) There are custom details throughout the house including a great room with 12-foot, wood-beamed ceilings and limestone fireplaces.

(right) The breakfast room is finished with a rustic table and chandeliers as well as doors that lead to an outside eating area for entertaining and relaxing. The grounds feature a pool and spa surrounded by sweeping lawns, beautiful gardens and mature trees.

(below) The gourmet kitchen in white tones is bathed in sunlight, creating an open, airy atmosphere. The island offers a place to prep food and space to enjoy a casual meal, while built-in nooks provide room to store cookbooks and a desk to study or read, creating a multi-use space that serves the whole family.
